

SOCIETY DOINGS

Weddings.

Miss Allene Howard and R. R. Nunn were married Monday evening at 7 o'clock in the church of St. Clement at a very simple ceremony, performed by Rev. Henry Easter. The church was attractively decorated with quantities of palms, bankings, the choir stalls on either side of the chancel and among these were great stalks of the waxy Yucca blossoms. Sweet peas decorated the altar and were strewn down the aisle of the church, over which the bride party passed. The bride was given in marriage by her father, A. S. Howard, Jr. The bride's brother, A. S. Howard, Jr., was Mr. Nunn's best man. The bride was dressed in a gown of white crepe, with a white belt and carried a bouquet of La France roses, arranged shower effect. Edwin C. Kalkmeyer played the wedding marches as the bride party entered and left the church.

The wedding ceremony was quite informal, but was attended by a large number of the friends of the bride. Following the marriage service, a wedding supper was served at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Nunn, 1215 N. 10th street. Mr. Nunn is an engineer connected with the Phelps-Dodge interests. Mrs. Nunn was a teacher in the public school for a number of years. The past year she has been a teacher in the Dallas high school at Dallas.

Parties.

Miss Jessie Sanderson, who is to marry J. E. Cribbs on June 22, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Alice Webb at her home on Gold street, recently. The evening was spent in various games and with music. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the decorations of the room. An ice course was served at the close of the evening. The gifts for the bride to be were placed in a large box covered with pink and white crepe paper. Those enjoying the evening were Misses Martha Loman, Lola Courtney, Cora Ferguson, Nellie McKenney, Ruth Webb, Madeline McLaughlin, J. N. Naranjo, W. R. Newbrough, F. H. Sanderson, V. Lawton and A. H. Webb.

Miss Elma Farley, who is to become a bride on Thursday, was the guest of honor at a party given by her Sunday school class in the Westminster Presbyterian church Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. H. Haffaker, in Manhattan Heights. The rooms were decorated in pink and white. A surprise shower, which was concealed in a basket covered with white crepe paper, was presented to the bride. Those who were present were Misses Elma Farley, Josephine March, Aelion Statham, Mary Hardie, Mary Hester, Mary L. Lowman, Rose Roberts, Louise Korte, Isabelle Kitchen, Floy Greer and Frances Farley.

The teachers of the primary department of the Westminster Presbyterian church entertained Monday afternoon in the church parlors, in honor of the teachers of the Loreto academy, who are to become June brides. Miss Emma Hoffman, Miss Edna Thomas and Miss Lucy Clair Howard were the honored guests. The children of the department were the guests of the party. Various games and songs were played and sung by the children.

Each bride to be was presented with a bouquet of pink and white roses, which contained the names of all the children of the Sunday school. Pink and white sweet peas were used in the decorations and the same color was repeated in the refreshments. There were about 50 guests present.
